Halloween Rules

Do you want to survive this Halloween? Following rules might help you:

If you think you've killed the monster, never check that it's really dead. It isn't. Also, if you've just pushed the monster into the lake from your boat, do not lean over to see if it's gone.

If you find out that your house was built on an old cemetery, move out immediately! Or, sell it to your in-laws. It's up to you.

If the electricity fails, do not search the basement and never walk into a room backwards. There's always something behind you.

If your dog suddenly runs away, do not go looking for it. If you do, turn all the lights on and keep a flashlight handy. And stay away from the basement...

If you have to run away, take a bus. If you take a car, the monster will be in it.

If your car runs down of gasoline at night, do not go to the nearest house to call for help. There's always something inside.

If you find a town that looks deserted, it's probably for a reason. Remember, you don't want to know the reason.

Finally, stay away from certain geographical locations, such as the Bermuda Triangle, Transylvania, Salem or Elm Street.

1) Rozhodněte, jsou-li následující tvrzení pravdivá nebo nepravdivá (P/N)

8. It will be fun to visit Salem.

Přečtěte si následující text a přiřaďte čísla odstavců k tvrzením pod textem (1 – 4).

1. The last time I went to a restaurant was about three months ago. My husband and I wanted to celebrate our wedding anniversary with a good meal so we went to an expensive French restaurant in the centre of our city. We both had cheese to start and for the main course my husband ordered a beef stew and I chose fish. For dessert we both ate chocolate cake topped with fresh cream. It was absolutely delicious!

2. I went to a restaurant yesterday evening with my brother's children. It wasn't expensive and the menu wasn't too original. We all had a burger and chips, and we drank some soft drinks. It wasn't very good but the children were excited anyway.

3. My boyfriend loves spicy food so this restaurant was perfect. The waitresses were all really friendly and polite, and they played traditional sitar music which was very relaxing. The menu offered vegetarian and vegan dishes as well as meat dishes served with rice and a sauce - it depended on how hot you wanted it! I chose a mild beef curry but my boyfriend had very spicy kidney beans with steamed rice - he also drank almost two liters of water!

4. My class went there the Friday before spring holiday. It's a very popular type of restaurant in my country. It generally offers one type of food (a kind of bread with cheese and tomato sauce). Then you can choose what ingredients to add on top of it. I asked for mushrooms on mine and my friends each had something different – olives, pineapples, spinach, chicken meat and so on, so we could taste a piece of each person's meal.
